Items of Note

Those not skiing on Wednesday are expected to be in class.

Wednesday is Pink Shirt Day. We encourage everyone to wear pink as a sign they will stand up against bullying. This year we also encourage everyone to go out of their way to be kind to one another:

- |                            |  |  |
|----------------------------|--|--|
| ● compliment someone       | ● leave a nice comment on social media | ● say thank you a lot                                      |
| ● offer to help            | ● apologize                            | ● stop talking & listen                                    |
| ● hold a door              | ● forgive                              | ● be happy for other people                                |
| ● thank your bus driver    | ● be thankful                          | ● put your phone down and give someone your full attention |
| ● cheer on your classmates | ● high five people in the hallway      | ● let someone go ahead of you                              |
| ● smile                    | ● share                                | ● give others a reason to smile                            |
| ● invite others to join in | ● leave a nice note on someone's desk  |  |

is it
BULLYING?

When someone says or does something unintentionally hurtful and they do it once, that's RUDE.

When someone says or does something intentionally hurtful and they do it once, that's MEAN.

When someone says or does something intentionally hurtful and they keep doing it even when you tell them to stop or show them that you're upset—that's BULLYING.
