No new additions

3. Approval of minutes

 Pioneer S-C March 7/22 approved by Jeannette seconded by Laura

4. Reports

○ Trustee (Heidi Hetherington and Jackie Janes)

Tomorrow there is a school council association workshop put on by Wildrose school division.

Three year capital plan. Priority of major projects to be submitted to Alberta Government: right size Breton and Rocky schools and modernization of Frank Maddock.

Umbrella school council was March 10th. Looking for ways to increase literacy, support french immersion, and classroom size. Board is advocating that new curriculum be postponed as it is still not developmentally appropriate.

Report accepted as presented by Jeannette

○ Principal (Patrick Wilbur)

Pandemic news-not much to report. Continue to stay home if you are not feeling well even if testing negative. All other protocols were lifted. Still have enhanced cleaning. Furniture in the gathering area is back.

Dance is this Friday!

Silent Bunnies for Easter since silent hearts had to be canceled.

Attendance not great but a bit better than at the beginning of the year

Discipline is mostly interpersonal issues between friend groups.

New curriculum for grade 6 health and phys-ed.

Finances are looking good. Hoping to have saved a bit and have some carry over.

Agreed to participate in CPAP Piloting a science test in grade 8 this year. Similar to PISA. Test is used to compare schools across the country/world.

Waiting for staffing numbers to start planning for next year.

Report accepted as presented by Lacey

○ Teacher (Breanne Oakie)

Noticed a boost in morale since restrictions have been lifted.

Dance this week. Camp caroline next week.
