Items of Note

West Central HS vice-principal, Catherine Curry, recently visited each of the grade 8 classes to discuss grade 9 programming and gave each grade 8 student a course request form for next year. Students can return these to the office by May 16. There are extra copies at the front counter if students were away or misplaced their original.

Calming the Chaos. This FREE class will utilize humor, psychoeducation, and a deeper understanding of our bodies stress responses to support parents in regulating the difficult emotions and behaviors in our homes. Calming the Chaos is led by Rocky PCN’s Behavioral Consultant, Candice Larson BSW RSW. Candice utilizes her sense of humor and extensive experience supporting families with trauma, mental illness, and other challenges to add real world examples and strategies to this learning opportunity. Register by calling 403-845-3050 (space is limited, please call early).

Students registered for bussing for the 2024=2025 school year will receive a transportation registration confirmation sheet that parents need to review and return to the school no later than June 6. Please check with your child to get this important document.
